Reference letter - To Whom It May Concern

David Laszlo Frank, born on 8 May 1993, from Hungary, conducted two internships with Google Switzerland GmbH from 7 July 2014 to 3 October 2014 and from 2 March 2015 to 7 August 2015.

David's main tasks were:

- Developed components and views in the GWT and polymer frameworks
- Worked with javascript, ajax, promises
- Worked with distributed files systems
- Worked with map reduce
- Fixed some issues in the query parsings
- Converted tests to JUnit4
- Introduced dependency injection to several backends (guice)

Technologies used: Java, JUnit4, Jersey, Guice, GWT, HTML5, JavaScript, AJAX, promises, Polymer, Map Reduce, Distributed File Systems

David has shown great professionalism in his work, carrying out his assignment to a very high standard and to our complete satisfaction. He regularly exceeded his goals and objectives.

David had considerable organisational skills and his efficient and systematic approach to tasks enabled him to cope with large volumes of work.

We have got to know him as an extremely motivated, committed and dependable colleague, who demonstrated thorough dedication and exceptional initiative.

With his friendly, polite and courteous manner, David contributed to a harmonious working environment. He was very well accepted and appreciated by superiors and colleagues in equal measure.

David left us on 7 August 2015 because his internship ended. We wish him all the best for the future and thank him for his contributions to Google.
